Selecting an Artist's Work to Display in the Gallery

- The two of you work at an art gallery. You need to decide which artist’s work to display at next month’s show.
- You are on the selection committee.
- Four artists have made it to the final selection process.
- Each of you will be given descriptions of two of the four artists.
- You will need to describe the two artists you are given to the other member of the committee so that you both know the four artists. The goal is for you both to know about the four artists.

Examiner 2 is the gallery owner.

Test Taker 1

Selecting an Artist's Work

Daniel Roberts

The following list provides some information about Daniel Roberts:
- sketches of famous athletes
- black-and-white drawings
- work featured in major newspapers
- brings professional basketball players to openings
- received “Best New Artist” award
- profits donated to youth program
- drinks alcohol at show openings

Helen Jones

The following list provides some information about Helen Jones:
- large wall-sized paintings
- oil paintings of exotic flowers
- work featured in hotels nationwide
- TV station will film event
- degree in art theory
- artist’s studio close to gallery
- doesn’t like to sell paintings
Test Taker 2

Selecting an Artist’s Work

John Richards

The following list provides some information about John Richards:

- draws cartoon characters
- bright and colorful pencil drawings
- illustrated popular children’s book
- book author will attend show
- teaches art history in university
- will sign drawings for buyers
- has unpredictable behavior

Linda Taylor

The following list provides some information about Linda Taylor:

- small metal sculptures and jewelry
- interesting abstract forms
- recently won international art competition
- fashion designers and models will attend
- learned to sculpt from her grandmother
- jewelry popular with movie stars
- refuses to attend the opening