About the Test
The MET Go! Speaking test measure emerging through low intermediate English language ability. The test takes about ten minutes and is comprised of four parts designed to give test taker the opportunity to speak on different topics:

- Part 1: Warm-up (unscored)
- Part 2: State the difference between two pictures
- Part 3: Describe a picture and tell a story about it
- Part 4, Task 1: Answer a question about a personal experience
- Part 4, Task 2: Answer a question about a personal opinion/preference

How to Practice
To practice for the MET Go! Speaking test, we recommend you use the sample test below. You'll need the Test Taker Card for the person practicing the test and the Examiner Card for the person helping you practice.

To evaluate your performance, please refer to the Scoring Criteria and Sample Test Commentary below.

Sample Test
Test Taker Card

---

Part 1: Warm-up
This is a short practice conversation.

How are you today?

What is the weather like today?

Do you like this weather?

How old are you?

When is your birthday?

Tell me about your family.

Where do you live?

Tell me about your home.

---

Part 2: Picture Comparison
Look at the two pictures. Many things are the same, but some things are different. For example, in both pictures, there is a bed. In picture 1, the bed is small, and in picture 2, the bed is big.

What else is different? What else is the same?

Say as much as you can. You have 90 seconds.

---

Part 4: Personal Experience and Opinion Questions
1. Tell me about a time in the past when you went to a concert or listened to music. You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.

2. Some people like to listen to music when they study. Other people prefer to study in a quiet place. What do you think is the best way to study? Give your opinion and reasons to support it. You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.
Welcome to the MET Go! Speaking Test. My name is [Examiner’s Name]. Please say your registration number aloud.

Your registration number is: ____________

Thank you.

Tell me about your home.

Where do you live?

Tell me about your family.

When is your birthday?

How old are you?

Do you like this weather?

What is the weather like today?

How are you today?

This is a short practice conversation. I’m going to ask you the questions on the test card. Read registration number aloud.

For example, in both pictures, there is a bed. But in picture 1, the bed is small, and in picture 2, the bed is big.

Look at the two pictures. Many things are the same, but some things are different.

For example, in both pictures, there is a bed. But in picture 1, the bed is small, and in picture 2, the bed is big.

What is your name?

Nice to meet you, [Test Taker’s Name].

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.

You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.

You have 90 seconds.

Say as much as you can.

What else is different? What else is the same?

Start the stopwatch.

After 90 seconds have elapsed, or if the test taker indicates that their answer is complete, say:

Please say as much as you can for each task. I will tell you when your time is up.

Thank you.

Collect Part 1 test card.

In Parts 2 and 3, you will talk about some pictures. In Part 4, you will talk about yourself.

You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.

You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.

Now you have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can. Please begin.

There are no right or wrong answers on this test. Please say as much as you can for each task. I will tell you when your time is up.

Before we begin, did you understand the information on the test cards? There are no right or wrong answers on this test. Please say as much as you can for each task. I will tell you when your time is up.

The examiner discourses below should be used with each and every test taker to ensure a consistent testing experience for all. The information in bold text is to be read aloud. The information in italics explains what you should do.

The information in italics explains what you should do.

The information in bold text is to be read aloud. The examiner discourses below should be used with each and every test taker to ensure a consistent testing experience for all.
Sample Test

Examiner Card

MET Go! Speaking Test
Examiner to Test Taker — Part 3: Picture Description

1. Now we are going to start the third part of the test.
   Hand out the Part 3 test card.
   Tell me what you see in the picture and tell me a story about it.
   Say as much as you can. You have 60 seconds.
   Ask the examiner:
   NOTE: If the test taker stops speaking and needs additional prompting to fill the allowed time, say:

   Test Taker's Card

   Tell me what you see in the picture and tell me a story about it.
   Say as much as you can. You have 60 seconds.

MET Go! Speaking Test
Examiner to Test Taker — Part 4: Personal Experience and Opinion Questions

1. Now we are going to start the last part of the test.
   We will ask you two questions in this part of the test.
   You will have a moment to plan each of your answers. Then, you will have 60 seconds to talk about each question.
   Hand out Part 4 test card.
   Read aloud the instructions for the first question printed on the test card.

   Question 1
   ______________________ Question 1 ______________________
   Tell me about a time in the past when you went to a concert or listened to music.
   You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.
   ______________________ Start the stopwatch.
   ______________________ After 10 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Say as much as you can. Please begin.
   ______________________ After 60 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Can you tell me more?
   ______________________ After 60 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Thank you, now let's move on to the next question.
   ______________________ Read aloud the instructions for the second question printed on the test card.

   Question 2
   ______________________ Question 2 ______________________
   Let's talk about your opinion. Some people like to listen to music when they study. Other people prefer to study in a quiet place. What do you think is the best way to study? Give your opinion and reasons to support it.
   You have 10 seconds to plan your answer.
   ______________________ Start the stopwatch.
   ______________________ After 10 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Say as much as you can. Please begin.
   ______________________ After 60 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Can you tell me more?
   ______________________ After 60 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Can you say why?
   ______________________ After 60 seconds have elapsed, say:
   ______________________ Thank you. This is the end of the MET Go! Speaking Test.
   ______________________ Thank you.
   ______________________ Collect the Part 4 test card.
   ______________________ Stop the audio recorder.

Test Taker's Card

Part 4: Personal Experience and Opinion Questions

1. Tell me about a time in the past when you went to a concert or listened to music.
   You have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can.
   Please begin.
   ______________________ 2. Some people like to listen to music when they study. Other people prefer to study in a quiet place. What do you think is the best way to study? Give your opinion and reasons to support it.
   You have 60 seconds to talk. Say as much as you can.
   Please begin.

Scoring Criteria

MET Go! Speaking Examiners evaluate test takers’ ability to complete tasks, to express ideas comprehensively and fluently, ad to use learned vocabulary and grammar. The final rating is based on a test taker’s response to all parts of the test (except Part 1, the warm-up).

Scoring Criteria
Sample 1

[Sample 1 audio]

- Part 2: The test taker completes this part successfully by clearly stating the differences between the two pictures.
- Part 3: The test taker partially completes the task of describing the picture and telling a story about it.
- Part 4, Task 1: The test taker partially completes the task by saying “I went to a concert because I like concert”; however, they do not provide enough detail about this experience.
- Part 4, Task 2: The test taker describes the library as a quiet place, but does not clearly give a preference or reasons to explain that preference.
- Overall, the test taker is successful at using highly common words and expressions throughout the test, though pauses and breakdowns interfere with the message at times.
Sample 2
[Sample 2 audio]

- Part 2: The test taker states several differences between the two pictures, including “The mom’s style hair is different. ... In picture one, in the bathroom, the water is falling, and in picture two, not.”
- Part 3: The test taker tells a story about what is happening in the picture, and provides details about the objects and figures (e.g., “At the moment, another teacher entered the room, and all the childrens are studying song. Another one is singing and the teacher is drinking a coffee”).
- Part 4, Task 1: The test taker gives many details about a personal experience seeing Cirque du Soleil (e.g., “The last year, me and my mother went to- to saw Cirque du Soleil. It was funny and very exciting because the- the persons were doing strange things”).
- Part 4, Task 2: The test taker provides an opinion (e.g., “The best way to study is study in a quiet place”) and gives a reason to support it (“My opinion is best studying in a quiet place because it more the concentration and you will study more”).
- Overall, the test taker provides shorter utterances throughout the response and repeats their speech at times. Basic vocabulary and grammar is used throughout the response. The test taker’s speech is mostly intelligible.

Sample 3
[Sample 3 audio]

- Part 2: The test taker describes many differences between the two pictures, including the water in the sink versus no water, the cat versus the mouse, and the guitar versus the tennis racket.
- Part 3: The test taker describes the picture and connects the actions into a story: “Here the professor she are like the- she is like the director. They are play the violin and he play the triangle. I can see like a coffee and he- and they are learn the things that the professor give us.”
- Part 4, Task 1: The test taker describes a personal experience: “In April I went to a concert with my friends. It’s reggaeton concert. And I pass a good time because the musician say hello to us. And then I see a lot of persons like celebrities and I sing all the- all the songs because I learn them.”
- Part 4, Task 2: The test taker gives an opinion (“I prefer to study in a quiet place”) and supports it with reasons (“because I don’t- my brain don’t work with- with music because I- I want to sing the song but- but I can’t because I have to study. And I don’t like when I study listening to music because I don’t have concert- concentration and I didn’t learn any”).
- Overall, the test taker uses well-controlled basic vocabulary and grammar and some less common, more abstract words and grammatical structures. The test taker’s speech is mostly intelligible and pauses usually do not interfere with their message.