10. *F: What did you get for lunch today, Anthony?
M: Well, I wanted a burger, but there weren't any left, so I had pizza.
F: Oh, too bad. Maybe they'll have some tomorrow.
N: What did the boy eat?*

11. F: Hi, Dad. I found an interesting tree I want to take a picture of. Can I use your camera?

F: Everything's great! I haven't seen YOU around lately.
M: Yeah, I went to visit my grandparents for a couple of weeks. It was fun.
F: Where do your grandparents live?
M: They live in the mountains, close to a big lake. There is a LOT to do there—I went hiking, swimming, fishing ... but my favorite thing was spending time with my cousins.

M: Is everything all right? It's very important to arrive on time. Otherwise, you miss important information. And it may distract your classmates.
F: I know. I'll try harder. But I have a new baby brother. And he cries all night long.
M: So you aren't sleeping well. That's understandable. Have you tried ear plugs?
I think we can get some for you from the school nurse.
F: That would be great! Thanks, Mr. Miller!

M: I still haven't finished it yet. Can you help me with it before class?

F: Sure. Is after lunch OK?

M: Yeah. How about we meet in the library?

F: Sounds great. Oh! And don't forget to bring your book and the problems that you did already. I'll bring my notes from class.

M: Thanks so much. See you later!

N: Listen to a teacher talking to her class.

F: It's almost time to leave for our field trip. As you know, today we're going to a furniture factory. We will watch furniture, like tables, chairs, and desks, be made.

When we get back to school, I want you to write a report. In it you should describe what you saw at the factory. You can write about the machines and what the workers were doing.

OK, please make a line by the door. The bus we'll take to the factory will be arriving in just a couple of minutes.

23. N: What does the woman say about tables and chairs?

24. N: What does the woman tell the students to do?

N: Listen to a teacher talking to a history class.

M: Good morning, class. I hope you all remembered to read Chapter 10 in the textbook for today's class. I'm giving you a small project to complete in groups. You need to work together to answer the questions on the paper that I will give you.

Each group should have four students. Please find three others and push your desks together. You have 20 minutes to prepare answers to ALL of the questions. Then, I will ask each group to talk to the class about one question.

25. N: What is the man mostly talking about?

26. N: What does the man say about desks?

27. N: What will the teacher ask the students to talk about?

N: Listen to a speaker at a picnic.

F: Thank you, everyone, for coming to this year's Maple Hill neighborhood picnic! We have a fun afternoon planned.

Lunch will be ready shortly. Our neighbor Bob Watson is grilling burgers and hot dogs. There are also several salads, and a table of desserts! Please help yourself.

In addition to the delicious lunch, we have games for both children and adults. And of course, the playground and swimming pool here in the park are available. Most of all, we REALLY hope you get to know your neighbors better. Have fun!
